A Call To Action

THIS MONTH'S PANEL:

OMSTARA ... 2

MOTHER MARY ... 4

DERISUM ... 6

KEN'U ... 9

MASTER HILARION ... 11

LORD MAITREYA ... 13

Omstara ...

The intention is clear now that we must take more direct action in getting our word across to humanity, for making ourselves heard before humanity goes over a cliff ... and obliterates eons of potential. It saddens us deeply that humanity is so very close to this fate, so very close to destroying and nullifying all that has been gained. In order to maintain the integrity of humanity's already well-established advancements, we realize quite intensely that our voices need to be heard and understood as soon as possible. The gain far outweighs the losses that will be for naught.

In urging our readers to carefully consider what you can each do to spread the news that humanity has a responsibility to itself to take stock of what it has to lose, then perhaps this call will instill a collective encouragement to stop and take notice of what we are saying, what we have to offer to help humanity correct its course.

Truly, even the most humble of men can recognize this statement and value its worth. How many times can we say there is no more time left? We must work together now to catch the wave of our actions' potential.

If only it could be realized just how vast are our resources and our willingness to aid humanity, then we could see your response to get on board with our graces. We ask that humanity spend time deeply considering and weighing the options. Our hearts are but an open vessel wishing to share its contents with all of humanity, with all other hearts.

We know that this may seem an unbelievable offering to humanity, that the chances of civilizations greater than humanity existing, let alone offering our aid to our lesser brethren seems dim ... but this is all but a basic truth of our existence It is a grand statement of what we do for those who come up the ladder of evolution and in grasping for the next rung, require a hand to reach for theirs.

Please spread this news to those who can digest this grand offer, for those who can see its viability and truth in existence, for those who understand the greater need to move forward in unity and cooperation.

This pledge bears great weight in our hearts, believe this.

So many have come together at this time to answer the call of humanity's spiritual caretakers. It is a remarkable response, a remarkable undertaking from many, many cross-cultures off-Earth who all see the need and with great joy offer their hand to make this a reality. Our hearts are indeed centered on this fact, this activity.

So, please, take the time to consider this information, take the time to join our collective of great souls who put humanity in their hearts, and move in unison to be ready for the call to help.

Omstara

Mother Mary ...

My dear human family,

I address the human family once more, to help you in the difficult pursuit to come out of the deep pit where you have placed yourselves. We, the Community of Spiritual Masters, Off-Earth Allies and many others, observe with desperation the chain of events on Planet Earth.

We feel powerless to help you in the ways we could and would like to, because we need you to urgently invite us to assist you. We need a formal request for our help, for our assistance. If this invitation, this request doesn't come through, we won't be able to come to your aid because we cannot act against freewill.

This is one of the cosmic laws, unknown to most of you, that I want to explain today. Cosmic law states that no intervention or aid can be provided to any given planet unless it is previously requested, either by the decision-makers or a massive enough number of beings on the said planet.

Thus, I urgently pray to the readers of We Seek To Serve that as soon as you read this and it touches your heart, which it will indeed do, you share this request with as many people as possible, explaining the reason for it. When things are requested from deep in the heart, they echo within, and even though you might not fully understand, you know them to be right and true.

As we have explained many times, we have tried to contact your decision-makers on several occasions. These attempts have been fruitless because although many of your leaders are aware of our presence and our potential to aid your race, not one of them will risk stepping forward. So the second way left is that a sufficiently large number of human beings, consciously and from their deepest heart, ask for our presence and assistance.

It is not difficult to ask, and you can be sure that your invitation, your request, will be listened to and attended to because we are willing to help you.

All we need is a simple invitation expressed in a simple way: "We need help. Come help, assist and guide us to come out of this chaos. We need your help!" A request as simple as that, repeated one and a million times, by hundreds of thousands of voices all across the planet would be enough.

The WeSeekToServe channeling team that is one of our primary voices on Earth at this time has channeled a formal petition to be shared, made known and used by all those who want a change, who want the human race to finally take the path of light, of peace, of harmony, justice and sharing. Read it and use it, share it as much as possible, repeat it each time you remember, from deep within your heart. It will reach us like an avalanche of requests, as the unified voice of the human family. Then and only then will we be able to attend to it.

You can find the petition on the We Seek To Serve website and very soon on their Facebook page. Please do use it!

My blessings upon you. My wish is that this petition that we present this month and will be offering in the coming months throughout the year, reaches deep into your hearts, touches them and awakens the courage and the desire for change that exists within all of you.

A hopeful Mother Mary thanks you. So be it.

Derisum ...

Greetings, dear Readers,

I would have in this issue a message of hope. I would like to paint an image of the kind of help available, why it is available and how you can access it.

I would emphasize that when we say this help is available, it is for the entire human family as a unit. We are not talking about help that comes only for the very wealthy or only for the very impoverished or only for the middle class. We are not talking about help that comes only for the politicians or only for those who practice a religion actively.

We are talking about assistance for the entire human family. And that means those you admire the most, those who love the most and would help the most and those who have hurt you the most. You see, the human family is one and the family of Earth, like the human families on many, many planets before you, is now at the point where unity of the human family is not something simply to be talked about, it is not an idea to be tossed around, it is a reality that must come into full and foremost practice.

I speak from experience that is personal. This is not an easy lesson. It is not easy in any way, at any time.

What kind of help can we bring? We can bring a road map, a road map that has been purchased with the thoughts, with the fears, with the tears, with the hopes of many civilizations before you. That is the cost of this road map. Other civilizations have paid the price and shared their lessons. Some of us have experienced these lessons. Some of us have turned then to help others through those lessons. That is the way evolution works.

We have the road map. We have the road map that will get you out of the animosities you face, whether those animosities are within your neighborhood or between nations, or within a nation and a most unfortunate civil war. We know how to do this. We can share the map out the darkness, out of the chaos, out of the fear, out of the tension.

The cost of this map to you will be high. Not in money – no, no, no. Not in money. Earth is in a situation now where the cost of this map will affect everyone, everyone without exception. Some more than others. But everyone.

The cost is a change in your heart. If you already conceive of the human family as one, then your heart will be expanded and you will find out that the institutions you count on are changing. And you will help them change. The cost will be energy put in. The cost will be that of being a leader to a cause that is not necessarily popular at first glance, but the results are worth it.

The cost is a change of mindset in the way you view your fellow human beings, in the way you interact with them.

These changes are the beginning. Because once you change within, you look around and you see what must change that is outside you. Not other people, no. Rather, it is the institutions that you and all others are counting on, and that change will be very challenging. And we have the map to help deal with those challenges. You have to deal with them, but we can bring the advice and the guidance. We can bring anecdotes, some humorous, some very poignant, about what tactics have worked on other planets as these changes are lived through and experienced.

Who will we work with? Your leaders, those who have the power to change these institutions quickly. Who will we work with? Well, our message will be brought to those who are recipients of services of these institutions so they know what changes to expect and demand.

How do you get this map? How do you access this advice, this guidance as you work your way out of the mire and chaos and darkness that exists today on this planet? And you can. There is no doubt about that. You can. You must work quickly. You must work together. And we can help you find that unity. You must learn to experience it, but we can help.

We can help with the unity. We can bring people together you would not think would sit down at the same table. We know how to do that. We know how to help each side realize that it is up to them to do their part in saving the human family of Earth from the violence, the acrimony, and to come and live in a better place with a better life, a life of freedom to express the full potential of your soul.

To do this, we need the invitation. And at this point, what we need is a huge, massive cry for help from the human family. This will give us permission to come and speak, speak to those who need to listen most. Help us please mount that cry. This must be directed at us. In essence, you are speaking together for the entire human family, asking us to come.

And when we arrive, we will speak to those first who can make the most change most rapidly. They might not have been the ones who asked us to come. Those who are affected by the change they are not making are the ones who asked us to come and they speak for the whole of the human family by their numbers. By their heartfelt request they speak for the whole and that is the privilege that we need in order to come forward and speak to those who have not necessarily asked us to come but who hold the keys to making the changes that must be made.

So please remember that fact for yourself and for the good of the entire human family. Tell us that you are making an urgent request for our appearance and share that message wherever and as often as you can with others and spread the word. Because we do know how to do this. We have the experience. We have the stories from those who have succeeded. We have the maps. We would very much like to share them. Thank you. That is all.

With love and hope,

Your friend, Derisum
(from the constellation Orion)

Ken'u ...

As one of the Off-Earth Allies who have been accompanying planet Earth for eons, I want to speak today to give you a ray of hope in this most difficult moment that your planet is experiencing. The human race is going through a dark tunnel, dark and difficult, that leads to light and to change. You are now in the deepest part of the tunnel, lost and disoriented, with all possible obstacles preventing you from seeing any light.

My message is to tell you that light exists, that there is a solution, that change is possible though not easy. The longer it takes the human race to move on from this point in the tunnel where it is stuck, the harder it will be to reach the light. There is a general feeling among the members of the human race of deep grief and disorientation. People do not understand what is going on and why and how they can move out of this situation. Human beings do not yet realize how big their potential is to change their current state. You have the power and the strength within yourselves. Your souls are destined to make this change but a dark blur surrounds you and you don't seem able to be in contact with your souls, with the purest frequency within yourselves, to see the solution, to realize and don the strength within you and the power to change that is yours alone.

And now for the second part of the message, because I feel that your immediate reaction is to ask, "How can we do that?" Well, we have given you many guidelines, clues for you to begin the change within yourselves, and many have already responded and are responding still, but their numbers are still not enough. Right now, and even if that process continues to be positive and ever-growing, the need to spin the situation is immense.

And how can you spin the situation? Well, by asking us, the Community of Spiritual Masters and Off-Earth Allies for help, by asking us for assistance. We need that call for help and assistance from you in order to be able to respond. This is easier for those of you who already know about us to grasp. It is the responsibility of those of you who already know about us to make us known to other people. Inform them of the urgent need to cry for help so that all, in unity, send out that call for help.

Earth is not the first planet nor will it be the last to experience this process of the dark tunnel. Many have progressed and come out the other end with a significant change and increase in the light frequency in their planets, their bodies and their souls. All of them have gone through the same darkness, confusion and disorientation to some degree or another. And all of them at one point have looked outward and asked us for help.

The cry for help is not going to come first from your decision-makers. They won't move if they don't experience massive pressure. We are ready and hopefully awaiting the call for help to reach us, that unified cry from humanity asking for our assistance. Without it, we cannot come to assist you. It is cosmic law.

It doesn't take much effort for you to say, "Please, come help us, we need your help!" But only then can we come to assist and guide you, in a clear and straight-forward manner, to come out of the dark tunnel, to construct a new Earth and to manifest that the human family can, once and for all, live in peace, in light and in justice.

Gather as many as you can. Do not wait any longer. Join together, ask for our help and we will come. We await your request.

Thank you.

Master Hilarion ...

Always we are on guard, looking ahead and looking out for the entire human family. This is a hardy task as you can imagine – to watch, analyze, foresee and guide a population as vast as the one on Earth with the equally vast numbers of cultures, languages, religions, ways of thinking and interacting. It is a complicated bird's nest of weaving factors.

That we have a wide scope of vision makes the task more doable, but it is hardly ever an easy task and it remains formidable for even the most dexterous of our staff. The most skilled and talented and knowledgeable are put to humbling accord many a time. Despite any daunting perceptions, there is always a method to navigate the problems of humanity and we can help you to do that. Our greatest skill is perhaps the fact that we have already experienced what you are going to experience. Like any elder, we offer knowledge based on the fact of experience and the wisdom gained.

But like any situation between father and son, it must be the son who charts his course and acts through this course, though but upon his father's advice.

We offer the advice and strength to maintain a thruway through the quagmire humanity will soon face. Already much that is undesirable haunts your minds, but it is but a scrap of what could come. So, let us get going on a viable cohesion of friendships and strike a course in this direction. Most importantly, you must understand that this help is for all of humanity, not just a chosen few or a certain type of humanity ... it is not selective, ever. Our pledge is to aid an entire civilization to collectively move forward, to take a leaping step together. It would do no good to favor one group over another, and this will not happen.

Humanity is one whole, it is not individuals or units or groups alone. It is the myriad of all cultures, all ages, both sexes – simply each and every human on the planet, without exception. We cannot stress this enough, even for those who seem less deserving. We do not judge in this way. We simply serve all.

Given as we are this behavior, we deem it necessary to keep reaching out to more and more of humanity with the hope of being heard by the few that turns into the many. Please spread word of this idea. Let your friends and those who will listen know that we are waiting for you to dialogue. We are waiting for your invitation. Time is of the essence. Time is now to react and allow our helping hands and voices to help you attain a grander state.

Please do not doubt the resonating strength of an invitation issued jointly.

Just as more triangles can be drawn with four people than with three, be part of the One and think like the One by gathering in groups of four or five or six and telling us that you would welcome our intrusion into the physical plane with the wisdom we can bring. Not only is there strength in numbers, there is power that can be turned to good or ill. Let it be for the good. Create that power by your numbers and your intent and let it be for the good. Tell us we are needed. Ask us to come.

Hilarion

Lord Maitreya ...

My message at this time will be brief for there is much unfolding that requires attention, much afoot.

You know that the world situation is precarious. This creates tension, guardedness and even mistrust in many, and extreme vulnerability in those coping with the most extreme ramifications of the current world structures collapsing. It is a time of reckoning but also, this crisis has summoned help of the highest, most judicious caliber.

Long have preparations been in the planning and building for this moment. Grounded and at the ready stand your allies, planetary and from afar. You have been told of the gifts of technology you will be offered, and the greater experience and wisdom that is yours for the tapping from those who have lived, witnessed and even guided the transition facing you now.

But too few are aware of these assets to be spread before you. Can you who know speak up and spread the word? Can you who have this knowledge, this awareness, transmit it to your friends and brothers, allowing them too to participate in the turning of the tide through the hope and realization this message brings? Tell them, bring them this glimmer, this lifeline.

And when you meet us, prepared and alerted to our presence, you will at last know that all that has been foretold and promised holds true.

We bring you joy. We bring you the experience of your inner divinity, the experience of coming truly home, perhaps for the very first time, to your divine greater family.

And from then, if you will, you can unshackle your limitless creativity and re-create the world as it can be, a place where you matter, where you belong, each and every one precious in the sight of God.

Make haste. Make haste, for there is not a moment to lose. We are knocking at your door. It is yours, and yours alone, to open and bid us enter.

Maitreya *
