Planetary Reunification – A Key To Survival

Sho

(from the Pleiades)

I wish to focus on the reunification of this planet from an energetic perspective. I have mentioned many times over that I am an energy worker assigned to assist in energetic healing, balancing and repair of this planet and its inhabitants.

When you hear the word “reunification,” you most likely think of countries like Germany or Korea. However, I also use this word “reunification” in the context of countries and regions that are split by war and continuous animosities. Not only are those countries geographically and politically split, they are also split energetically.

This energetic fracture goes through all interlinked dimensions – the Human Kingdom, Animal Kingdom, Plant Kingdom, Mineral Kingdom and also the Devic Kingdom. Each of these kingdoms is affected by the decisions that the Human Kingdom imposes on a region’s inhabitants and habitat. This imposed rupture can be compared to a major surgical intervention – a deep wound that leaves the outcome undetermined where the patient (i.e., a country or region that has been split apart) tries to survive while the medical staff (i.e., sympathetic countries, relief organizations, the United Nations) gives all the support it can based on the current understanding of the situation.

The energetic field of a country or region is always damaged by war. When a separation erupts, it creates ongoing energetic imbalances that deepen with each passing day as animosities continuously surface and are freely exchanged.

The affiliated kingdoms (Animal/Plant/Mineral/Devic) are trying hard to balance the situation energetically, trying to stay interlinked. However, this is a challenge because on top of the disturbance humans as a kingdom create in the energetic field, individual inhabitants of the region release the vibration of fear, a frequency that interferes with the repair work that my colleagues and coworkers are engaged in.

That is all I care to say about countries or regions that are experiencing an obvious energetic split.

Now, let us turn to countries at peace.

So-called countries at peace do not suffer from energetic fragmentation due to war but they, too, experience energetic splits due to the different groups within their population and the way those groups interact with one another. How do political or religious parties interact with each other, their followers and their critics? How do different ethnic groups interact? How are minority groups treated? How are the old, the young, the sick, the unemployed, the non-academic, the women or the asylum seekers viewed and treated?

Even if a nation maintains technical peace within its borders, there are most likely energetic fractures within its population and/or with other territories and countries. These rifts are sometimes hidden and sometimes they are in the open, visible to everybody.

Reunification is a major concern for those of us who guide from the inner planes. We need to see reunification, or at least the willingness to unite in peace, in order to accommodate the next chapter of the divine plan for this planet. This is a major task as it requires of the human family not only open minds but also the willingness to admit that there are imbalances that must be ironed out amicably.

When we look at this planet from outer space, we do not see any borders. To us from off Earth, you are one human family residing on this planet. Please get this picture into your head and into your heart – there are no borders as such.

Please start to think of global, respectful reunification whenever you interact with someone, no matter if this someone is a countryman or foreigner, someone who shares your values and belief system or practices traditions that you do not. In this way, you can help to establish worldwide energetic balance.

Think of the ripple effect that you yourself create, especially when you are in balance, working from your heart. As mentioned in an earlier contribution, the human kingdom has one single divine heart frequency that you can align with in order to gain and sustain balance. Being aligned as an individual, and increasingly as one human family, with humanity's divinely intended heart frequency helps to re-establish the energetic reunification that planet Earth so urgently needs.

Reunification – an important word for all those who want to be of service to humanity and this planet. Work from your heart. Look at reunification as one of the pillars of civilization, a pillar you personally can help to strengthen through the attitude you demonstrate, firstly toward yourself and secondly towards others. When you do that, you are in balance and the ripple effect you emit to the outside world will show powerful results.

I am most grateful again to you for having taken the time to read my article on reunification. Through people like you, we are encouraged that humanity understands the severity of the situation it is in and the urgency of taking action – individually and collectively.

Your friend,

Sho*
