A Matter Of Healing

We are always looking for ways to help our brethren in humanity see clear to a solution that will leverage your advancement. Ways to help humanity see for themselves the wonders of the universe so that they can reach further, further than before and upwards to the stars. Humanity too reaches for the stars, each person in their own way, for everyone dreams of something better in their life. So we have common ground here.

But as on any given day, a curve ball can and will interfere with the outcome of your dreams. Events will occur that may help some parts or hinder some parts of this dream. The event may seem random, but it is a challenge for you to overcome or it will overcome you. Humanity has swung back and forth on its outcomes and deep karma lies entrenched to further complicate your efforts, like an old injury to haunt you.

Perhaps only the best doctors can help you heal this injury that flares up and gets in the way of your dreams, be it emotional, physical or otherwise. Nonetheless, without some expert therapy and healing, you cannot heal and the dream will remain unattainable ... if not for the healing help of a doctor, dentist, physical therapist, energy healer, teacher, colleague, shoulder of a best friend, etc. Whether the wound is large or small, deep or on the surface, you are always on the way to faster recovery and a step closer to your dreams with the help of such an expert or one with an open heart.

And that is who we are on both accounts. Our hearts are open to your plight and without passing judgment on what caused the problems, we simply want to help you solve them. Your success is our success.

We ask for your permission to help you gain your success, to serve and guide as the experts with open hearts. We ask you to be not too proud, be not too doubtful, to be not too unloving to accept our offer to help you. No civilization can do this alone, just as no person can do it alone.

No one is alone – we are here, listening and willing – eager to help you attain your golden dreams on both a personal and grander scale.

We implore you to take some moments each day and, in asking for our help, know that your appointment is here, now and in the present. We would like to help you solve your aches and pains and come into healthy days. And just as there are many remedies for ailments, there are many ways to ask for our help. Our colleagues have gathered to provide you with options, each one acceptable under Cosmic Law as a request for our assistance.

I ask you to please review the options below and find the one or two or three that speak to your heart and choose one each day. Together, you will harmonize into the chorus we need in order to make a house call.

Alternative Calls For Assistance

One

This is a request to the Community of Spiritual Masters and their Off-Earth Allies:

We/I, -----, in my name and in the name of those in the human family of Earth who do not have the awareness, the knowledge or the means to know you, here and now urgently request your presence. We need your help and assistance to guide us as we move forward to come out of the chaos and darkness in which we are today.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Two

O Great Creator and Source of all life,

Mother Earth is hurting, in her body and her soul. As one of her concerned children and part of the one human family, I, -----, urgently request that you send the needed help to lead us from darkness into light and show us the way to restore our Great Mother to the path of righteousness and beauty. May she be made whole again.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Three

I/we recognize that the beauty of life on this planet and the joy of living are endangered by the anger, violence, hatred and fear that exist within her human family. I/we know that better times can be made to happen if we join together. But joining together in sufficient numbers is so very hard for us to do. We realize that we cannot do this alone.

So we would ask, indeed plead to Powers Greater Than Ourselves that they send to us – and help us recognize – those who will be able with their wisdom to guide us out of this chaos and into a place where we can start anew with hope and build a world that is fair and just for all. This we ask.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Four

I call for the 'Powers That Be' to help humanity open our eyes and hearts to the truth about who we are and to save our world from disaster.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Five

To those divine representatives who guide us:

The people of planet Earth have a great need of assistance from the God who has created us. We, humanity on this planet, are struggling painfully to find our way back into the loving arms of the God that has provided for us since the beginning of our race. In these darkest days that we are struggling through, please come forward and assist us in whatever way you believe is best. We thank you and honor your commitment to the people of this planet.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Six

From the brightest light in my heart (our hearts) and in perfect communion with all the other kingdoms of Earth, in this time of conflict for our planet and for all of us who live within, I/we, -----, require the help, guidance and assistance of the Celestial Realm, the spiritual beings of Light and Knowledge to enable us to re-encounter the essence of our souls and all, in unison, promote the great change towards light in our world and in the human race. We ask this with absolute faith that our request is heard and attended to.

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you.

Your devoted friend,
Sho*
