Introduction

"We Offer Our Services" from Master St. Germain was first published as an Open Forum article in October of 2013. He explains the underlying analysis and perspective that the Masters and Off-Earth Allies are able to share with those who request their advice. Our WeSeekToServe panelists asked to have this article lead off their January 2016 discussion.

We Offer Our Services

Master St. Germain

We have delighted in this Open Forum idea and wished to speak here. There is so much I would wish to communicate to humanity, both as a fellow human and old friend to many. I have lived many lives as a teacher and mystic, so it is only suiting that I continue along these lines on this side of the veil. It was always a joy to me to teach and help someone discover the great mysteries of life.

Humanity really is an amazing creature of evolution. Evolution is an amazing and constantly expanding concept in which so much is possible, with so many endless possibilities and variables to consider. Thus, with humanity this is also so.

Each reaction creates a reaction and so forth, ping-ponging along the way, building a new path moment to moment. How truly exciting this is. This is true freedom, the act of creating one's future, moment to moment. The will and the mind allow for you to do this. Every human being has a mind, a brain and a will, quite connected to all. Thus, when one makes a move, there is a connected move with others, and this carries on down the line to endless possibilities and reactions ... a truly intricate and complicated web of points and interlinking cross-points. The complexity is mind-spinning.

It takes a great, coordinated effort to make sense of all of these connecting and activating actions. My friends and I are quite capable of analyzing such events, seeing possibilities and directions. We see behind the scenes too and are therefore the perfect candidates to advise humanity on its course of action. We get a clearer picture of things in a way that is impossible for humanity to accomplish at this time. We therefore offer the most complete analysis, based on a more complete understanding of cause and effect reactions.

This is the service we offer to humanity ... to be the vision you cannot be, to see into places you cannot see and help guide you to make choices that will result in an outcome towards cooperative means. We are naturally talented in this arena of understanding and analyzing actions and reactions, of seeing the web.

Master St. Germain

Dear Readers,

It is not by accident that I address you two months in a row. Indeed, I have deliberately elected to do so.

If you have read my biography elsewhere on this website, you will know that I have been with you for a very, very long time and that one of my specialties is disaster management. More specifically, my work has to do with rebalancing energies and more specifically still, with repairing the deleterious impacts of human consciousness on energy streams of many kinds.

To the point that karma allows, I assist in rebalancing Earth energies that have veered away from the divine plan. I am one of many experienced Off-Earth Allies with many different skills who are here to help you at this crucial time in your planetary evolution.

My message to you, the human family of Earth, is simple: we are here to help you, we are ready and able to help you, but we must be invited – we must be invited – to do so. Our coming before you requires a profound and widespread change in human consciousness, a different tonality as it were emanating from your collective hearts and minds. We need you to look up.

We must have more of humanity vibrating at a higher level, ready and willing to accept our help and guidance. We need more of you unafraid of us, more of you open to all that we have to offer and ready to work alongside us.

We need more and more and still more of you ready to adopt new modes of thinking and being so that your innate Oneness can demonstrate and grow, and so that you can realize this is happening and work to accelerate it. We need more of you to fully recognize what it means that you are One Family on this planet, to start truly acting like the brothers and sisters that you are.

We need more of you welcoming us and recognizing that you are not only the One Family of Earth but also One Family with myriad other human families throughout this galaxy and the universe itself. We need to be invited to stand not only before you but at your side.

We need you to see through the “alien” image manufactured by Hollywood and the falsehoods disseminated by your governments to keep you disinformed and docile. There lies the real “conspiracy,” fabricated by emperors that everyone knows have no clothes.<sup>1</sup>

We need you to understand how critical your situation is now on this planet and what we have to offer you that can help you to step back from the brink. Allow us to counsel and assist you through your decision-makers. Allow us to guide your scientifically-minded into discoveries that will help banish many of the chronic problems you now face. Allow us to share with you in other fields of endeavor to help you more swiftly find your way back to your divine path.

There is a window of opportunity now as tension escalates on all fronts. More of you are opening to receive the gifts we bring you, to re-align your thinking and modes of being, to focus on productive ways to help heal your human culture and this Earth who is your mother. Are you ready, collectively, to act from a deeper, more inclusive and sound awareness? Many of you are here now for this very reason and are awakening to that fact. For many, the shift has already occurred.

You, as one human family, need our help but know that we need yours too. We need your unified invitation to come more openly before you. We need you to call on us. Stand up on and over the heads of your leaders and call for us. Let us in, first and foremost into your hearts and minds. Accept that your longing to meet us is true and deep and believe it can be so. Look up now and then into the night skies, breathe in the stars and know that you are not alone and never have been.

Help us to come forward. This we do under cosmic law but also as a pledge of Brotherhood and Service to you as Family. Truly ask, focused and unified as a family and truly shall you, as a family, receive.

Your friend and ever-loving off-Earth ally,

Sho
(from the Pleiades)

<sup>1</sup> This is a reference to “The Emperor's New Clothes,” by Hans Christian Andersen. Two weavers promise an Emperor a new suit of clothes that is invisible to those who are unfit for their positions or stupid. The weavers have made nothing, but the Emperor will not admit that he cannot see the new suit. So he parades before his subjects wearing no clothes. His subjects, not wanting to be thought unfit or stupid, all admire his new clothes ... until a child cries out for all to hear that the Emperor isn't wearing anything at all.

Master Morya ...

Dear Friends,

Do not waste any more of the precious and limited time you have left to accomplish change. There is no time to waste. Humanity appears to be sinking deeper and deeper into chaos for it is always the negative that stands out, but reversing this tendency is a part of change.

It is not about what you hear and what you see. It is about changing your attitude toward what you hear and see. Changing your attitude does not only mean sending light, sending the force of positive energy to the situation, but also and above all to react, to take action and find the solution to the problem. In that sense, there are two sides to change.

There are many possible solutions to the problems affecting the human family but I want to focus on the one I find more effective in the short term. This option is asking for help.

The entire human family must become aware of this possibility and respond by asking for help, by demanding changes and solutions to come out of the present chaos. And you must not lose hope. You must not bury yourselves in disappointment, despair and apathy. This is not the first time this has happened in the universe nor will it be the last. But time is running out and the Earth's situation is dire.

There are solutions, there is help waiting for you, but under the cosmic laws we obey on our side of the veil, if we do not receive a request from the human family that is sufficiently strong, focused and unified, we cannot offer our advice or guidance to your decision-makers. Without that unified request for assistance, we would be violating the freewill of your decision-makers if we stepped in. And violating freewill is something we will not do.

It is the clamor of the whole human family, the clamor and request for change, and the looking outward to receive help from off Earth, without fear, that will cause things to change. Know that the change can be undertaken, know that the possibilities of success are still great and that the desire for change is not only a desire but a necessity of the soul of each and every human being.

It is very necessary that the minority of people who already know about us make our presence and our willingness to help the rest of the human family known, so that the demand for help can be as widespread and unanimous as possible. In fact, this is critical.

The distance between your plane and ours, that of the Community of Masters and Off-Earth Allies, is becoming smaller. This will make communications easier. Open your awareness, your intuition, leave your prejudices behind and allow us to reach you. Trust that our help will come to all who request it and even more to many who won't. Do not delay in taking this necessary step for the survival and evolution of the human family.

I assume my share of responsibility for having remained so distant for such a long time. Now time urges and our impotence is great, as great as our desire and determination to bring about the peaceful survival of all humanity.

We are ready, waiting and working together, with the hope and the intent to come as close to you as possible. It is our desire that our cooperation be narrow and start as soon as possible. I hope this desire is also yours, yours and that of all your fellow human beings. I hope you will find a way to unify and focus your requests. Do not give up on your will to move forward.

Thank you for listening to me. My blessings upon you.

Morya

Lord Maitreya ...

I believe that at this stage of the evolution of humanity – I find it difficult to say one human family – at this stage, I repeat, many people are seriously thinking about the need for change. This need is obvious to anyone who lives on our planet. Some consider it with a broader view because they have access to media, social networks or the Internet, because they have culture or university degrees, because they work in government departments.... Others have a narrower perspective because they don't have this access to culture or information. But all feel the need. All want to live in a better world.

The key question is what to do to bring about this change? Our repeated advice about changing from within oneself, sharing, accepting others, learning from others, all this that we've spent months delving into, all this is important and it is part of the necessary change that leads to Unity. The problem is that this information reaches only a few and that the concept of Unity – of one human family – is nearly unknown to the large majority of the seven billion people, more or less, who inhabit this planet. Small minorities, more and more with time, are putting it into practice. This idea of Unity must arise from within each person's soul, but it seems that this is not always the case.

Thus, it is true that a large part of the change must come from yourselves but there is also a large part of change towards a better life that does not depend on human beings only. At the moment, it depends to a large extent on external help that you may receive. External help is here – from the Community of Spiritual Masters and from your Off-Earth Allies. All of these and many more are at the disposal of the human family, willing to help you by providing their knowledge.

Many of your Off-Earth Allies have gone through the same thing on their home planets or have supervised processes of this type within other civilizations. They can, they know and are willing to advise, guide and give directions that humans can apply to bring about the change that all souls on this planet desire. It is entirely up to you as a unified human family, that you be open to this external help, that you be ready to receive external help and put it into practice. Without this indispensable step, it will be very difficult for humankind to get out of the great chaos it is immersed in.

This change, this acceptance of external aid, can only come about through your leaders, not because other people cannot receive the information or help, but because their work in disseminating it would be very slow. Our latest efforts are directed at achieving this change in attitude, the accepting of external aid – the asking for and accepting of it – so necessary in your decision-makers at all levels so that real work can begin. But so far, we have not been able to achieve positive results.

Nowadays, world leaders are not willing to make public these possibilities. It will be the growing demand of their voters, of the human beings who live on this Earth and can choose, as well as growing pressure in general that will create the appropriate breeding ground so that your leaders put aside, once and for all, the fear of losing their prerogatives and take a step forward to save your world.

We hope and wish that this so necessary and so important change in attitude, so vital to humankind, will come about as soon as possible.

Thank you.

Maitreya

Mother Mary ...

We are looking this month at the effects of shifting your point of view and asking for help. But this must be asking for help, I would say, from the most useful frame of mind. And who is it who must ask for help? That is the next question and I would like to address both.

Asking for help from the most effective frame of mind is looking inward and upward to the greater good of the whole and asking for guidance for the greater good of the entire human family. This can be very difficult when you have a particular problem right on your doorstep. This can be very difficult when you are concerned, desperately concerned for those you love, be they near or far, those you care about, those you would have safe from danger and the chaos that consumes the human family today.

But the most effective frame of mind to ask for help is indeed to look inward to your inner guidance that is ever in the light if you take a deep breath and realize that your heart is a direct connect to your soul and your soul has a connect to the Lord God. And look upward, look upward to the angels. Look upward to those you would consider saints.

And if you do not believe in angels and saints, look upward to those who have passed on and have a broader perspective than you do, those who have achieved wisdom, those who no longer need to come to Earth to incarnate, those from the Masters of Wisdom who live in the Community of Masters. Look upward and ask for help. You can look upward and ask for aid from the Off-Earth Allies who have a vast array of experience.

When your pleas for assistance, when your concern is for the whole, for the greater good of the human family, you are asking for help from the light and those pleas will always be heard. And the more we hear, the easier it is to respond.

The next thing I would speak of is who it is who must ask, for clearly, any one and every one of you can ask for support and assistance, can ask for guidance, can ask for insights. Who most needs to shift perspective and ask? And send the request upward to those who are further down the spiritual path? Who must do that most?

Well, it is those who can benefit most from being answered, from receiving the aid they request. Who are they? At this point, we would say from our perspective that it is the decision-makers who walk the Earth among you, those who are decision-makers within the shifting populations and those who are decision-makers at the highest political, social and economic status in the world communities.

It is these decision-makers we would reach if at all possible and encourage them with our outreach of love and light so they realize that once they have shifted their perspective, keeping their focus on the high energies, the high frequencies of greater good for all, we will be able to respond to them. And if enough of them issue the request for assistance in the context of the greater good, then we will be better able to act and respond.

I would like to take a moment to consider what that response might be, what it might look like. That response might be a dream that gives them a new perspective. It might be a flash of insight that they never expected. It might be an "accidental" meeting. It might be an unexpected visit from someone with a fresh and new idea. These are some of the ways we will respond.

We will provide guidance, advice. We can give a lot of advice in dreams to those who dream and remember their dreams. This can be the response. But ever the perspective and the context of the request come from looking inward to your spiritual core, looking upward to those further down the path, or both.

Please remember this in your own life, with your own problems. As close as those problems are, pray for the greater good, for the greater good of the whole and this will be humanity's path forward to calm the chaos: ever higher frequencies, ever the light, ever the greater good. This is where the strength of the human family will lie.

I thank you very much. I wish you well and I hope that you remember my words.

With love,

Ken'u ...

It is with great will and grace that the time presents this opportunity to again stress to humanity just how bound we, the Off-Earth Allies are to you, our brethren, and that there is no time to waste in addressing this kinship with a productive relationship of guidance and caring. The group of us see the dilemmas plaguing humanity and strive to give aid but are forever and always bound by certain laws. The restrictions of these laws can be dissolved by the asking of humanity for our devoted help ... to aid in transforming the old ways into newer, progressive ways that serve humanity in group survival.

How many times do we need to tell you that we are awaiting your invitation, that we are awaiting your permission and can then act accordingly to help solve your pressing and seemingly impossible problems, problems that are continually mounting and adding more pressure to the pot?

How can one ask? What is the best way to ask?

Well, we do not need a special invitation complete with a complex ceremony. A simple straight-forward statement is all that is required, for we are ever willing and deeply knowledgeable. In fact, this willingness and knowledge are spilling over in abundance and we are most happy to share this abundance with our kin.

"Our kin," we call you, for we know the truth of it. It will take some time for humanity on Earth to accept and understand this but we already know and feel it. While you catch up to this thought, to this great fact that binds us, we can already lend you the most helpful advice and friendship to re-build not only our relationships of old, but also to re-structure your societies on Earth so that they serve all, not just the rich and privileged.

I would be more than happy to hear from every reader, to understand what your ideas are and how you expect our aid may affect your lives.<sup>2</sup>

You can stop this very second and send forth a statement of invitation to any of the members on this website. We have our visions of our participation and our boundaries, but we are also open to consider and adjust to the perceptions you have. This is a teamwork project.

We are willing and waiting to hear from you. That is the first step, one that cannot be side-stepped, but must be embraced so that we can embrace our task to help our precious brethren. Bearing in mind that it is you, the human family, who must do the job of righting your problems, it is we who can lighten that load and bring to bear ideas that can and will help you succeed in a seemingly unsurmountable task.

No civilization has successfully borne this load, this shift in time and place, without the help of their elder brethren ... not my own civilization nor any others I know of. Such help is a necessary function to evolution and we, your Off-Earth Allies, are happy to give to you what was given to us.

In time, Earth humanity will be able to, in turn, give to others. We see this sort of action in many of humanity's actions already. Imagine what would happen if this chain were expanded and opened up to the many nations of the stars ... all striving together to lend to the success of this, your civilization. It quite simply would prosper like it has never before prospered. This is what we hope to help you achieve.

Please take this step. Thank you.

Ken'u
(from the constellation Lyra)

Sartarius ...

For many an eon, we have watched and guided humanity through episode after episode of chaotic civilization. While we wait for glimmers of hopeful advances, we pledge to remain steadfast in our task to be your elders. We take a pledge that endures all tragedy and back-stepping, for it is held with the conviction that humanity needs our help and will not succeed without it.

Simply stated, humanity will not succeed without our guidance and help to lift them out of the darkened energies created by years and eons of living in such chaotic demise. Humanity has bright moments, this has been seen also and therefore the potential for a brighter future.... But this will not happen without the specific technical assistance we ourselves received to become the souls we now present to you.

It is a passing down of knowledge and carefully honed understandings that create the environment for a group to take hold of a pathway towards peaceful endeavors and success. Too many nuances of being human can create blockades against a mounted advance. We can help you disassemble these blockades because there were those more advanced who helped us and showed us how.

While we do not expect humanity to change overnight, should a sudden awareness come to light, it goes without saying that there is no time to waste on this accord. Humanity must take root to change now and allow these roots to grow into new pathways of collective, cooperative living.

Much, so very much must be changed and thus accomplished, but is not without great possibility once humanity can work toward a common goal, aspiring to Oneness in heart. The potential exists. We have seen it. So we strive unconditionally to help humanity reach this plateau of community, this valued existence. Once again, we remind you that all you need to do is ask for help and we can help. Then listen and be sound in heart, in mind, and then work together to plow new fields.

Our hearts radiate outwards in anticipation to fulfill our tasks as your trusted guides. We know both how difficult this can be to understand but also how easy it can be to take that step toward friendship and assurances. We have high hopes for humanity, high hopes indeed and a glowing outlook toward progressive relationship ... both your relationship with our side and your relationships with each other within your growing population.

We ask that you think deeply about this endeavor. Can you also pledge to a prosperous and cohesive future? The advice I have offered here is our suggestion on how to make that happen. Believe that we have the perspective necessary to benefit the greater human family of Earth and we are most eager to share it with you.

Sartarius

Addendum

The Off-Earth Allies who collaborate with the Community of Masters have experience across the galaxy with human communities undergoing the change that accompanies their planet's rise in frequency. Some of that experience is from personal memory of such a change, some of their experience is from helping other humans as the family from their home planet was helped. They have seen before the divisiveness we now have on Earth. They know that Oneness and Unity are achievable – and that the cost is worth it.

When the We Seek To Serve channeling team asked to have someone please explain what the promised help will look like, a group of 25 Off-Earth Allies and one Master banded together and spoke with one voice. The message is blunt, but based on all the channeling team has brought forward and all we have heard in private practice, this answer resonates with truth.

What Will Help Look Like At This Point In Time?

This is an addendum covering what it is that those who turn upward and ask for assistance can expect.

You can expect....

When you ask, when you ask for assistance for the greater good of the human family, when you ask for assistance knowing that there are those from off Earth and within the Community who have the skill set and the experience to advise wisely the decision-makers of Earth, when you ask that, what is it that you can expect in return?

What you can expect is that as those requests pile up, aggregate and become a cry from humanity, we will then consider that we have permission to come and communicate. We choose that word carefully. Communicate with those who are in the position to help the world and to turn humanity around and bring humanity forward, however painfully, out of the chaos that grips this planet now.

How will you know that we have communicated? How will you know that they have listened to the advice we have given? How will we give that advice?

It will not be showing up and knocking on their door and sitting down and explaining to them that their decisions are leading the human family of Earth into utter chaos that might be considered a slow suicide spiritually. We will not be front page news or a YouTube video. To do that we need a great deal, a great deal of invitations, a great many invitations. We will act, we will act less directly.

We will find those among you who have wise advice and we will do everything in our power to clear the way that those with wise advice can be heard. We will find those who have wise advice but are hesitant to speak and we will encourage them to speak.

What is wise advice? Wise advice is advice that will lead to the greater good for the whole of all humanity. Wise advice will not be divisive.

We will provide help in these subtle ways until such time as there is an unmistakable human cry from the entire human race. Then we can be bold. Until such time as the decision-makers themselves recognize that they are unable to deal with the issues and individually or as a group they unite and ask for assistance essentially from above, it would be well if they knew we existed and asked directly, but that might not be the case. If they turn to the Source or Allah or Jehovah, whoever they call the divine Creator and say, "Send help. Send help," then we can come to them.

Until then, it is these subtle means and we work through others. We work through human beings clearing the path that those who are wise can find their way. We work through dreams that those who are sensitive will recognize what it is we are sending. We will work to clear the path for the concept of collaboration for the greater good.

How will you know we are succeeding? Wise advice is for the good of the entire human family. This is one earmark. And at this point, if your leaders and decision-makers present stark austerity programs, stark, austere changes in institutions, look closely, not at the impact in your daily life – that you can evaluate – but if you want to know if it is our advice in action, look deeper for you will find broader repercussions.

Look to see if these changes, as painful as they are, are for the good of the whole human family, if they are leading to Oneness, if they are leading to Unity, if they are leading to a balance that will close the gap between the very, very wealthy and the very, very impoverished. You cannot help but evaluate these austere measures as they affect you and those you love, but we would ask you to look deeper. Look to what these can do for the entire human family – perhaps not today, perhaps not tomorrow but over time that is relatively short, which is a very subjective measure.

The human family must change its direction. It must change quickly and completely for the good of the whole. We would ask you to reread what Master Hilarion had to say ("Fall And Rebirth – Creating A New Civilization," Panel Discussion, November 2014). We would ask you to reread what our friend Ken'u had to say, ("Seeds Of Destruction," Panel Discussion, April 2014). There are others of this kind.

How will you know the help? At this point, the help the human family needs is going to be like the sting of an antiseptic on an open wound. At this point in time, the help the human family needs is going to be like the setting of a broken bone and binding the broken limb to keep it stable. It is beyond a Band-Aid. But we know how and we need the invitation to come, just as a physician needs permission from the patient to operate, permission from the patient to set a broken limb, permission from the patient to put a tourniquet on the wound, permission from the patient to apply the antiseptic that stings. There is no easy way around it.

And ever, ever this will be for the benefit of the human family, leading you from the spiritual morass to the light. The changes will be for the good of the whole and these changes now will affect you and your life. And when the whole human family begins working together for the benefit of the whole, led by those decision-makers who have the courage to make the changes that are not going to be sweet little changes, they are not going to be changes that affect this group and not that group.

The keys, we repeat, will be clearing the path for those who can see ways for the whole human family and that those who can see those ways collaborate with each other. The whole human family: an earmark. Benefit the whole human family to equalize and bring them toward Oneness and Unity. Collaboration, unshakable collaboration in what needs to be done. Changes that literally affect everyone. It's true, some more than others. Some have further to rise, some have further to fall, but these changes will affect everyone.

And if you are sensitive, you will note in your heart and in your spiritual being that these changes bring the entire human family toward Oneness, toward Unity, toward the plan that the Creator has set out for this planet Earth.

That is how you will know and recognize the change. It will not be that we make a grand appearance or a grand entry. We are not able to do that yet. One day maybe, one day maybe. But the call is not strong enough to bring us forward. Not yet.

Lastly, we would say that we are working together and we are working to find pathways that will enable us to come forward in person. They are not yet available to us, but we are working on them. We need your invitation. Please be aware of that. And all you have to do to begin the process is ask.

Thank you.
