Ascension – Individual And Group

Derisum

I have thought long and hard about this open discussion and feel that perhaps a note or two on ascension would be interesting.

Ascension is the step-by-step process toward liberating the soul from its physical vehicles. One becomes more closely connected to their soul and more spiritually activated. They become lighter in their being as they shed old ways and rise toward gaining a closer connection to the Source. Ascension is the natural process of all things, to rise to a higher level of evolution, transformed along the way into finer and finer existence.

As an ongoing process, ascension is something that every member of the Community and every Off-Earth Ally is experiencing, and the further along the path we are, the more difficult it is to move back to the denser physical, which is why the externalization is so challenging for us. Ascension applies for individuals as well as entire cultures and I will talk about both issues for they are deeply entwined.

Individual ascension is the ultimate goal that matches the ultimate goal of the group (meaning the entire of humanity). This very special procedure is energetically embedded in your microscopic energy patterns to achieve. Countless humans have pursued the path of ascension for many an age, mostly quietly or in small groups. But the moment has arrived when mass ascension is timed to occur.

A large group of humanity is ready to take the next step of ascension within the laws of Nature. Slowly over much time, souls have been working toward this great endeavor and now it is almost upon you. This vast number of people are soul-ready to expand their horizons and embrace a more fulfilling phase of existence.

There was a time when ascension was done strictly individually. A human trained and endured much to focus on the process. Over time, the human gained greater insights, shared those insights with others and the process carried on. Today, ascension is occurring simultaneously for vast groups of people, often unknown to one another but deeply connected.

While part of the transformation is still based on individual effort, so too is group work influencing this process and advancing the soul-worker. The momentum of this group perfecting will draw many more toward this milestone, people who will serve as pace-setters, as teachers to those behind them learning to evolve through their actions.

We can only speculate how this group ascension will expand your world, for it has not been done previously. There is no template for this achievement, and there is nothing to compare it to. Humanity will simply be able to involve themselves in accomplishing conscious expansion and reap the rewards that it will attract.

We are quite excited about this great and timely occurrence. We have guided you for so long, have watched and waited, and now can see the tipping point of a mass ascension being the catalyst to a new world. It will be the fruits of our labor with humanity of this planet as we have led you to this path along with our friends from the Community of Spiritual Masters. Our complete family has left no one behind to suffer needlessly. We are with you and always will be.

Thank you,
