Now Is The Time For Better Choices

Master Morya

Humanity's exasperation is reaching extremely high levels and in those levels, any little spark can light a bonfire. Humanity is divided between those who dwell on the dark side, those who suffer from it and those who observe the dark side and its misdeeds with increasing anxiety.

More and more terrible acts are needed for people to awaken, open their eyes and see the increasing danger. The recent events in Paris (the 07 January, 2015 terrorist attack on the staff of Charlie Hebdo satirical magazine) are the proof of what we mean. Humans living in the Western world or "civilized world" are unable to see the risk if they don't have it right around the corner. What happens in Africa belongs to Africans, and they are far away, and if the news doesn't talk about them, which is normal, then you ignore what's going on.

There is such saturation of dark news on the media that those human beings who have the privilege of having a television near cannot stand it any longer and become numb about what's going on far away. Only when violence touches them do they react and move, and this is very sad. Because the fact is that there will be more violent attacks within "civilized" society because that is the consequence of the advance of the dark side but also the way to make the world open their eyes, see the terror, its consequences, and mobilize towards a change for a better world.

Hard times are coming, even harder than before. Unfortunately, there is not much that we can do to help you out right now. The human family as a whole has chosen this road, chosen anger, fear and violence above negotiation, collaboration and sharing. We cannot and will not interfere with your choice. But we can encourage and support those of you who have made a different choice, a choice for peace, for co-existence, for cooperation, for Oneness. In those choices, we can and will stand with you.

We are still redirecting your blessings of Light, Love and Wisdom, using them to work in coming closer to decision-makers in your civilization. Unfortunately, all of the recent events highly prevent a clear, peaceful and fruitful communication with them, worried as they are by the violence and the breakdown of your civilization.

We never stop reminding you of the importance of group meditation and the blessings of energy that those groups send to the different events on Earth. I ask you to spread this message and these instructions to all the groups you work with and they in turn to their own groups.

Do not underestimate the power of Light. Do not consider yourself a helpless observer, especially when you join together in groups. Send blessings of Light, Love and Wisdom to the situation without taking sides and let us focus that blessing where we see it will be most useful. In that way, we are working together to bring about the best outcome possible for overcoming the terrors plaguing humanity.
